At INSIGN we understand that distinguished, timely and cost effective recognition of your Patrons, Donors and other people important to your organization is essential. From engraved plaques to full donor walls incorporating the latest in touch screen technology, INSIGN works with you or your designer to provide unique, well designed and well built recognition displays. We pride ourselves in thinking that no two projects have the same solution. The nature of your campaign, the amounts and categories of giving, even the design and features of your faculty call for thoughtful consideration leading to a timeless design specific to your needs.

Challenge us with your project!
